

Norcal Assisted Living Waiver Program

When Ray submitted his application, he had no idea what to expect. He was told that the process would be long and complicated, but he was determined to get his loved one into a safe and secure environment. After several months of waiting, he finally received a call from the Norcal Assisted Living Waiver Program. The program is designed to help families like Ray's by providing financial assistance for long-term care services. Ray's loved one is now living in a beautiful assisted living facility, and Ray is grateful for the support he received from the program.
